Welcome

Welcome to Cospodium, the Cosplay Compendium!

Have you ever wanted to build a costume for a character and didn't want to trawl through RPF threads or pick through cached blog posts on long-defunct websites hidden in the bowels of the Wayback machine, we've been there!

Well, here is a place where you can store the hard-won knowledge.

If you've ever looked at the Costume Reference Libraries from the 501st, Rebel Legion, etc and wished that you could have something like that for any costume, this is for you!
